

SCRSS Centenary Year: 1924–2024

About the Society for Co-operation in Russian & Soviet Studies

The SCRSS was established in July 1924 as the Society for Cultural Relations with the USSR and celebrates its Centenary in 2024. Today, the SCRSS is a library and cultural centre that promotes knowledge of the culture, language and history of Russia and the former Soviet Union. Our SCRSS Soviet Collections are a library and archive of the arts, humanities and social sciences of the former Soviet Union (1917-91). We also organise talks, films, seminars and exhibitions; publish the SCRSS Digest; and support cultural contacts between the UK, Russia and the FSU. Our members include academic and professional researchers, teachers, students and affiliated educational organisations. Registered Charity No. 1104012.

SCRSS Digest

The Society's journal is published two-three times a year. It is mailed to our membership, sold at events and published in PDF format on our website. The journal includes features on Russian, FSU and Soviet culture, history and language; reviews; and membership news. The A5-format journal is usually printed in black / white. Visit www.scrss.org.uk/publications.htm to view recent issues.
