

SCRSS Soviet Collections Copyright Declaration Form

Researchers must complete and sign this Copyright Declaration Form before being allowed to photocopy published material or receive scanned copies of material from the SCRSS.

This is not a Copyright Clearance form. If you intend to reproduce the material, you must seek appropriate permission from the copyright holder. The SCRSS may be able to help identify copyright holders but cannot guarantee to do so.

The SCRSS reserves the right to refuse permission to copy material.

All reproduced material must be credited to: SCRSS Library or Society for Co-operation in Russian and Soviet Studies, unless an alternative credit has previously been agreed.

The publication must not bring the SCRSS, nor any of its current or previous members, into disrepute.

The SCRSS must be alerted to any publication (including reprints, revised editions, and foreign editions) and one free copy of each must be supplied to the SCRSS Library.

I DECLARE THAT:

- My contact details, supplied to the SCRSS on my Researcher Registration Form, are correct.
- I have not previously been supplied with a copy of the material by the SCRSS or any other library.
- The material is ONLY for my personal research or private study, and I will not supply copies of it to any person or organisation without the permission of the SCRSS.
- To the best of my knowledge, no other person or organisation with whom I work or study has made or intends to make, at or about the same time as this, a request for substantially the same material for substantially the same reason.
- I understand that copyright fees may be payable on any material supplied by the SCRSS.

I understand that a false declaration will render any copy of any material supplied an infringing copy. This will make me liable for any copyright infringements, and I indemnify the SCRSS against any legal or financial penalties that may arise therefrom.
