Third SCRSS Russian Seminar 15-16 April 2009

The SCRSS Russian Seminar 2009 is two-day intensive programme of lectures in Russian on contemporary Russian society, culture and linguistics, given by lecturers from St Petersburg University. The seminar is aimed at teachers of Russian, final-year undergraduates and graduates of Russian who have a good aural understanding of Russian and wish to keep abreast of the latest developments in Russia. Participants may book a place on either one or both days.

Participants will attend four lectures per day, two in the morning and two in the afternoon, choosing from one or two options for each session. Lectures will last 45 minutes, followed by 15 minutes for discussion. Lectures will cover contemporary developments in Russian society, politics and culture, as well as aspects of modern Russian language usage. The full programme of lecture topics will be confirmed nearer the seminar date. Note: lectures are in Russian only.

The seminar fee includes morning and afternoon tea/coffee and biscuits. Participants may bring their own lunch or pay an additional £6 per day for a buffet lunch provided by the SCRSS.
